

COP TO DISCUSS PRISON

Chaplain Who Quit to Explain His "Moral Conditions" Statement

The Rev. Zed Hetzel Cop, who resigned as chaplain of the Eastern Penitentiary last week, has promised to issue through his attorney, within a few days, his reasons for leaving the institutions.

The only reason thus far given by the chaplain is indefinite. He said he had severed his connection with the prison because of "moral conditions" there.

Members of the board of inspectors of the prison said yesterday they knew of no reasons why Mr. Cop had quit.

J. Lafferty, acting attorney general of the state, said the chaplain had at no time made any official complaints.

"All that the man can say now," said Mr. Lafferty, "is that Mr. Cop volunteered his resignation and it has been accepted."

Religious services were directed yesterday by Warden Robert J. McKeon.

The clergymen who customarily conduct Sunday services were present as usual, the only difference being that Warden McKeon had general charge in place of Mr. Cop.
